egta is looking for a Stagiaire (non paid intership)

egta is the Brussels-based trade association of television and radio advertising sales houses, currently made up of 116 members in Europe and beyond. Our association is looking for a “stagiaire” to provide support to the egta-team.

Key activities

- Assist the team in regular contacts (written and oral) with members (request service, conferences and on other opportunities)
- Assist the team for egta’s monthly newsletter and contribute to weekly press review by writing summaries

Requirements

- Candidate should have a very good English level (as it is egta’s working language), with good written and verbal communication skills.
- Candidates must show strong initiative & organisational skills, be able to work well in a team environment and demonstrate attention to detail.
- Motivation and enthusiasm are necessary!
